However, as I started

looking for a good table top radio it was hard to justify Bose's price compared to Cambridge Soundworks i765. The i765 DVD/CD/IPOD/Radio is incredible. A side note, I was able to catch one of Cambridge's open box sales and I picked this system up with additional discounts for $150.

From an interface standpoint, i765 is okay, rather than great; complexity is largely to blame. Cambridge has packed 22 buttons and a dial on the unit's face, plus an extra button on top, while the remote control actually has 43 buttons, coded in various colors and labeled with icons, numbers, and phrases.
