Growing up, I ate a steady diet for breakfast--of Pop Tarts. As a direct result, I still vividly remember how hungry I was just one hour later and how lunchtime could never come quickly enough. So as soon as my own children became school-aged, I started to obsess about their having a good breakfast. For years, I woke up extra early every single school morning to make the three of them a fresh breakfast of scrambled eggs and fresh fruit. They did not appreciate my martyrlike efforts, and we all grew tired of the whole charade. Ever since then, I've been on a mission to develop an arsenal of make-ahead breakfast ideas that will keep them going all morning long. Here are my criteria for a school day

Each recipe in this book also tastes great fresh out of the oven, for those weekend days when you're feeling extra generous. I wish you hungry, generous eaters and your family's eternal gratitude!
