Killing Hour (aka Eyes Wide Open) was written with such passion and emotion that I was not surprised to find in the author's notes, that the book was rooted in reality and not fiction. Andrew Gross based this novel, perhaps in some cathartic manner, on his own tragic and deeply personal family loss.

Andrew Gross (Author of The One Man) - Goodreads

I have mixed feelings concerning Andrew Gross's novel 'Eyes Wide Open'. At the end of the book there is a heart felt author's note. Where the author explains the details of his own nephew's death. How his nephew Alex died in 2009 from an accident or suicide when he fell or jumped from the very rock mentioned in his novel.
