Get in Trouble is a weird collection of short stories that take readers to straaaaange places full of iguanas, superheroes, pyramids, and life-size animated doll boyfriends. I enjoyed all nine stories, some more than others of course, and instead of summarizing each I'll just tell you about two of my favorites: Valley of the Girls - elite teens have their own pyramids to party in until they move on to the afterlife.

The tragedy is that the love affair between Maria K. and Florian Sp. never happened. In 1941, Maria became one of the so-called “dishonorable German girls,” condemned for allowing herself to be defiled by someone who was racially inferior. Heinrich Himmler’s 1940 declaration stated that German citizens who entered romantic relationships with Polish people were to be arrested.
