The figures are jarring: for example, all of the roughly 80,000 Muslims in northern Sri Lanka were expelled from the Tamil Tiger-controlled north, and nearly half of all Sri Lankan Tamils were displaced during the course of the civil war. Sharika Thiranagama's In My Mother's House provides ethnographic insight into two important groups of internally displaced people: northern Sri Lankan Tamils and Sri Lankan Muslims. Through detailed engagement with ordinary people struggling to find a home ...

The author elegantly and movingly elicits stories from the survivors of the country's long civil war (in particular women). In doing so it offers a glimpse of those voices that have been silenced by the larger narrative and offers a much more complex picture of what it is to be a Tamil and a Tamil-speaking Muslim than anything offered by elites on either side of the cultural divide.

Self-dealing under a power of attorney is a clear violation of the fiduciary relationship. Many POA forms allow the principal to state whether self-gifting is permitted, but transferring major assets, such as a house, to your own account can be treated as felony theft under state laws. Since most principals are elderly, abuse is not always reported, and efforts are under way in many states to ...
